

Western Connecticut State University
Department of Social Sciences

Application Form (ANT298) Ethnographic Field Methods: Barbados

WCSU Summer Session II 2016 (June 27-July 21)

Please complete and submit this application with an unofficial copy of your transcript. Applicants will be assessed on their academic and personal readiness for an intensive overseas field course experience. After your application has been reviewed and approved, you will receive a registration code that allows you to enroll in the course.

Last Name:		First Name:
Permanent Address:
University affiliation (where you are currently enrolled):
Major/minor:		Expected graduation date:
Date of Birth:	Gender:	Marital status:
Email:
Home Telephone:
Cell Phone:
Emergency Contact number:		Contact Name & Relationship:
Do you have medical insurance? Y/N

Please answer the following questions:

Other field courses or study abroad courses/semesters completed? Please describe briefly.

Other experiences traveling or living overseas?

ANT298 will entail living with a host family for in rural Barbados and intensive coursework (reading, data collection, data analysis, and writing). What other experiences or courses have you had that feel are good preparation for this course?

In what ways do you think this field course will be useful to you in your education and your career?

Any physical/medical conditions that we should be aware of to ensure your safety and health while in the field:

Please provide names and contact information (telephone and email) for one personal (non-family) reference and one professional or academic reference:

Reference 1:

Reference 2:

Please provide an unofficial copy of your most recent university transcript with this application and either email both documents to hegelcantarellac@wcsu.edu, OR deliver to Dr. Hegel-Cantarella's mailbox in Warner Hall 224, OR mail to:

Dr. Christine Hegel-Cantarella, WCSU, Department of Social Sciences, 181 White Street, Danbury, CT 06810.

Students must submit this application by March 11, 2016. Because there are limited spaces available in the course, students are encouraged to apply early.

Do not write below this line
	Date Submitted:	Date Approved: