III. Students with Special Needs

Any student wishing to assert a disability that requires accommodation must submit supporting documentation from the appropriate professional(s) to the AccessAbility Services Office. The documentation must demonstrate how the disability affects the learning situation for which the student seeks accommodation and that information must be shared with the faculty member(s) whose courses are involved in the requested accommodation. The AccessAbility Services Office will notify the faculty affected of the accommodation request in a form that identifies the student, the disability, and the type of accommodation sought, as well as any additional information that will assist in the determination of a reasonable accommodation.

IV. Statement of Understanding

I understand the following statements, as they pertain to my participation in the stated Course Abroad program, and understand that I will be financially responsible for the cost:

Overall Program Cost:

- The program travel cost is $4300. This includes round-trip airfare from the NY/NJ metro area, transportation to/from the US airport, full board with Spanish families while in Malaga (double room), emergency health insurance, airport transfers in Spain, a trip to Barcelona and Costa Brava, double occupancy in hotels and two meals during the travel portion of the program and various activities.
- A non-refundable $1300 deposit is due with this application. It MUST be submitted with this application - money order or cashier's check only - payable to WCSU. (Bring to Ms. Beth Koschel, Berkshire Hall 214)
- A $1500 payment is due by March 19, 2018. (Bring to Ms. Beth Koschel, Berkshire Hall 214)
- A $1500 payment is due by April 2, 2018. (Bring to Ms. Beth Koschel, Berkshire Hall 214)

The program cost does NOT include:

- WCSU tuition and fees (6 UG credits)
- Visa, if required / Passport (required)
- Recommended trip cancellation insurance (available through an insurance company)
- Meals and personal expenses / incidental items
- Local transportation

Note: In the event that WCSU is charged additional direct costs by 3rd party providers, WCSU will charge participants for these direct costs. For example, on occasion, the airline will charge a gas surcharge. This direct cost would be added to your program travel cost. It is rare that this happens, but there is a possibility.

Cancellation Policy and Fees:

The deposit of $1300 is non-refundable. In order to cancel travel arrangements without losing the travel cost, written notice of the withdrawal must be received by Ms. Beth Koschel, Berkshire Hall 214, prior to close of business (5 pm) on February 9, 2018. If cancelling after this date, you will be charged for any direct costs incurred by WCSU on your behalf, as well as a $200 cancellation penalty. Because cancellation fees can be as high as the full cost of the travel program, purchasing independent trip cancellation insurance/interruption insurance from an insurance company is highly recommended. If WCSU cancels the program for any reason, all monies will be refunded. Withdrawal/cancellation of the
