

Management Department Candidate Evaluating Scheme Definition Sheet (02/30/2026)

Criteria	0	1	2	3
Appropriate terminal degree	no Ph.D, or equivalent to include any ABD, no further rating is needed	Ph.D. from a non-AACSB school	Ph.D. in another area of business or related field from an AACSB school (i.e. Organization Studies)	Ph.D. in Management from AACSB school
College teach experience	Less than 12 credits of relevant Management classes taught with full responsibility for course	At least 12 credits of adjunct teaching of relevant Management classes or teaching as graduate assistant with full responsibility for course	One to 4 years of full-time teaching of relevant Management classes	Five years or more of full-time teaching of relevant Management classes
Research and publication	No refereed journal articles or major publications such as textbooks in last 5 years	1 or 2 refereed journal articles or major publications such as textbooks in last 5 years	3-4 refereed journal articles or major publications such as textbooks in last 5 years	5 or more refereed journal articles or major publications such as textbooks in last 5 years
Professional development and college university service	No examples of university, school, dept service and no participation in professional groups	2 or less examples of university, school, dept service and participation in professional groups	3 or more examples of university, school, dept service and participation in professional groups	3 or more examples of university, school, dept service and leadership in professional groups
Business or managerial experience	No business or managerial experience	4 years or less of business or managerial experience	5 – 9 years of business or managerial experience	10 years or more of business or managerial experience