Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities

Who's Who Among Students is one of the most highly regarded and long-standing honors programs in the nation, recognizing upperclassmen and graduate students for their academic achievement and co-curricular contributions to the university and community.

Awarded by: WestConn Who's Who Selection Committee

Resident of the Year

This award is given to an individual who has served the campus community above and beyond the call of duty. This individual is an outstanding leader and motivator to all students, but particularly to the resident students.

Awarded by: Inter-Residence Hall Association

Program of the Year

The winning program is selected by all of the residence halls voting on the program they feel best suited the university and the needs of the community.

Awarded by: Inter-Residence Hall Association

Housing and Residence Life Staff Member of the Year

This award is given either to an RA, ARM, or a member of the Housing Department who has shown extreme dedication to housing throughout the year. Through programming, office work, and showing support for the residents of WestConn, the award recipient is being honored for his or her service. The award is voted upon by the Inter-Residence Hall Council which represents the WestConn resident body.

Awarded by: Inter-Residence Hall Association

Outstanding Student Program

This award is presented to a student or group who is deemed to have initiated and executed the program, excluding PAC programs, that had the largest impact on the campus community during the year.

The Hancock Student Leadership Program at Western Connecticut State University

WHO: All current and potential student leaders with a minimum of 30 academic credits are eligible.

WHAT: This initiative is designed to acknowledge, promote and foster diverse student leadership on campus, to inspire, motivate and influence others and to enhance basic understanding of all aspects of outstanding leadership.

WHEN: Nominations and self-nominations will begin in fall 2011.

HOW: Students will receive special training, complete an applied project, and create a leadership portfolio.

WHY: The benefits of the program include: scholarships; certificates of achievement/completion; increased effectiveness in leadership skills; recognition by students, faculty, and administrators; and enhancement to your resume.

The Student Leadership Program is sponsored by Academic and Student Affairs at WestConn and the Hancock Student Scholarship Fund. For more information, please contact Dr. Walter Bernstein at (203) 837-8606 or Dr. R. Averell Manes at (203) 837-8452.
