

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR THE CREATION OF STUDENT ORGANIZATION WEB SITES

Any student organization that chooses to create a World Wide Web site on a machine owned or operated by the University implicitly agrees to:

- abide by all University policies, including, but not limited to, the Policy and Guidelines for Computer Use (<http://www.wcsu.edu/technology/computerusepolicy.asp>);
- not violate any state or federal laws;
- avoid threatening or abusive statements and pictures.

Any organization that violates the terms and conditions outlined above will immediately have their web site removed from the server and, when appropriate, be subject to judicial and/or legal proceedings.

These terms and conditions apply to all World Wide Web sites served by, or linked to, any equipment owned or operated by the University, regardless of how they are created.

Responsibilities

The responsibilities for student organizations, their advisors, and University Computing regarding the creation and maintenance of a web site for the student organization are as follows:

University Computing

- University Computing will provide access to WestConn's student organization web server to the student and advisor responsible for the organization's web site.
- University Computing will provide, to the best of its ability, technical support for the development of web sites on WestConn's student organization web server.

Advisor and Students

- The advisor and students who sign this form accept full responsibility for the creation, maintenance, and content of any web pages created for the organization.
- The advisor and students who sign this form agree to abide by the university's Policies and Guidelines for Computer Use (www.wcsu.edu/technology/computerusepolicy.asp).

University Computing reserves the right to remove any information that is more than 30 days out of date from WestConn's student organization web server.

By signing below, you agree to the conditions and policies as stated in this agreement.
