

Meet the Author:

Jhumpa Lahiri

Wednesday, Nov. 5, 2008
6:30 p.m.*

Western Connecticut State University
Ives Concert Hall, Midtown campus
181 White Street, Danbury

Doors open at 5:30 p.m.*

Jhumpa Lahiri is the author of The Namesake, the book selected by the Danbury Library, the Danbury Public Schools and Western Connecticut State University as the 2008 One Book, One Community read.

Join community and university members for a rare opportunity to hear a world-renowned, Pulitzer Prize-winning author speak about her craft and share insights into the themes and characters that have captured the attention of an international audience.

Lahiri will be interviewed by Connecticut State University Professor of Writing, Linguistics and Creative Process Dr. John Briggs. A question and answer session with the audience will follow the interview.

This event is free and open to the public.

Books may be purchased before and after the program.
