

Minor in: Earth & Planetary Science (20 S.H.)

Name: _____ Adviser: _____

Requirements for admission or application to the program:

Students accepted into the program are expected to have completed all course prerequisites for the program. The courses for the Earth & Planetary Science minor will be comprised of the core courses for the Earth & Planetary Science major program. Twenty semester hours of courses noted as earth science or earth and planetary sciences.

REQUIRED COURSES (20 S.H.) select five with approval
MTR 150 Meteorology	4
AST 150 General Astronomy	4
ES 110 Physical Geology	4
ES 210 Introduction to Physical Oceanography	4
AST 231 Introduction to Planetary Sciences or EPS 331 Practicum in EPS Research or EPS 220 & 221 Seminar in EPS (2+2 SH)	4	Course:

- To obtain a minor, you must have approval from the Department Chairperson.
- You must submit formal notification to the Registrar's Office by completing the Declaration of Minor form in order for your official university transcript to include the minor.
- Depending upon your major requirements, you may need to take credit hours over the degree credit minimum required for graduation. Please see your adviser to review all program requirements.

Approved Electives:

Courses selected with the approval of the Physics, Astronomy & Meteorology Department adviser

NOTES: