

WestConn Sweethearts Program

To honor WCSU's Met & Married alumni, an area has been designated on the Midtown campus where WestConn Sweethearts can personalize bricks, commemorating your marriage and honoring your relationship in a meaningful and personal way. The WestConn Sweethearts area, located behind Fairfield Hall, is symbolic of the good times shared at the university and will reflect how Western changed your lives. Your tax-deductible donation will support the growth of this area and help it flourish for generations to enjoy.

We hope you will join the many other WestConn Sweetheart couples in creating this enduring display of your affection for each other and our alma mater.

"Met and Married"

by Sheri Hill

*Think back, if you can, to the day you arrived
On Midtown, or Westside, with stars in your eyes
Excited to be here for learning — and fun
Unaware that before long, you'd soon find "the one"*

*Did a friend fix you up, or was it by chance
A mutual major, showing up at a dance
In a class, or a club or your residence hall
Did you look up, your eyes meet, and then start to "fall"*

*Was it "love at first sight" or "just friends" at the start
Did you go with your brain, or give in to your heart
How long did it take before you two could see
You'd leave here with more than just your degrees*

*They say "Changing Lives" is what WestConn can do
Your marriage, of course, is proof that it's true
So tell us about your dear husband or wife
And how meeting at WestConn affected your lives*
