

WESTERN CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

Tuition and Fee Definitions

Full-Time
Tuition	Tuition is the cost of the educational and instructional expenses associated with the full-time courses.
University Fee	The University Fee is used to support the costs associated with the maintaining and repairing of student facilities (buildings).
University General Fee	The University General Fee supports several operational costs, such as those associated with the student center, student ID processing, accident insurance coverage, intercollegiate athletics, and shuttle bus services.
Student Activity Fee	The Student Activity Fee is used to support university recognized clubs, student center programs, and student functions.
Part-Time
Tuition	Tuition is the cost of the educational and instructional expenses associated with the part-time courses.
University Fee	The University Fee is used to support the costs associated with the maintaining and repairing of student facilities (buildings).
University General Fee	The University General Fee supports several operational costs, such as those associated with the student center, student ID processing, accident insurance coverage, intercollegiate athletics, and shuttle bus services.
Student Activity Fee	The Student Activity Fee is used to support university recognized clubs, student center programs, and student functions.
Registration Fee	The Registration Fee is charged each semester for part-time course registration.
Summer, Winter, & Spring Break Intersessions
Course Fee	The Course Fee is assessed instead of semester based tuition and fees during intersessions (summer/winter/spring break). The fee is equivalent of part-time semester based tuition + university general fee.
Registration Fee	The Registration Fee is charged each semester for part-time course registration.