September 1
Kristen Graves
Folk/Pop

Kristen Graves is a folk/pop singer & songwriter with a voice that commands attention, lyrics that catch your heart, and melodies that stay with the listener long after the evening ends. Kristen's songs have a coziness to them like a well-worn winter blanket, but don't underestimate her; she can pack a serious emotional punch at a moment's notice.

This is the night to show off your talent. Perform yourself (sing a song, play your instrument, do a sketch, tell a joke, or read a poem or short story), or, if you are not the performer type, convince a friend to go and come in support. The Coffeehouse regulars are always very supportive.

September 8
All Night Open Mic

September 15
Matt Sucich
Singer/Songwriter

Matt Sucich is from Queens, NY and has appeared at Electric Lady's Heartbreaker Banquet, Firefly Music Festival, Newport Folk Festival in Newport, Bonnaroo Music & Arts Festival in Manchester and many other extraordinary stages! His latest single, "Montauk/She Can," can be watched and heard at www.mattsucich.com.

All request live is an award winning show featuring a One Man Band who performs every show 100% by Text Message Request. The audience continuously requests songs throughout the show that Gary spontaneously replicates by using only his guitar, his voice and a loop station.

September 29
Ian Murray
Singer

Opening Act: Touré

Ian Murray is a Western Alum and an aspiring musician from Oxford, Connecticut. He has been writing music for several years now but has only performed for a couple of years. His influences range from Regina Spektor and Kimbra to Ryan Hunter and Hozier.

Tangible is a 3-piece, folk-rock group from Trumbull, CT. They perform at cafes, venues, and small festivals throughout Connecticut and parts of New England. The group includes two frequent coffeehouse performers and recent alumni from WCSU. Head over to coffeehouse for a night of must-see WCSU talent.

Tara Llewellyn
Musical Theatre

Musical Theater actress Tara Llewellyn has spent the past three years working on and off the stage in Manhattan since graduating from WCSU's Theater Program in 2013. She has had the pleasure of working on marvelous productions such as Heathers, #LoveStory, and is currently working on the Broadway Revival of CATS. Join her for a night of musical theater as she recounts cherished memories through pieces from some of her favorite shows.

Emma is a senior at UCONN, majoring in Journalism and sociology. She hopes to eventually travel the world with her career. Currently an Editor-in-Chief and a content creator, she does all this while balancing music on the side. Come check her out this week at Coffeehouse!

December 8
Elza
Acoustic Soul

"Elza is one of the best and sexiest live performers I've seen in a long while" - Walter Yetnikoff, CEO, Commotion Records.
"She has the pipes to spare on her independently released 'Elza,' which sounds like a blend of Joni Mitchell and Paula Cole. The songs are catchy, melodic and radio friendly" - The Post and Courier, Charleston, SC.

Have a great winter break!
