Conceptual Framework for Education Programs at Western Connecticut State University

Conceptual Framework

Shared Vision and Theme of the Education Unit

A conceptual framework captures the shared vision of the Unit, guides the activities of faculty and candidates, and becomes the vehicle through which the Unit's goals are articulated to the broader community. A conceptual framework promotes cohesion within the Unit and becomes a base from which "continuous improvement, renewal and change can occur" (Dottin, 2001, p. 3).

The vision of the Western Connecticut State University (WestConn) Education Unit is reflected in the term EDUCATOR (Expertise in content knowledge, Diversity, Unity, Classroom and school leadership, Attitudes, Technology, Organize knowledge and facilitate learning, Reflective practitioner) and the theme Preparing teachers and counselors to facilitate student growth and achievement in the 21st Century. The components of our Conceptual Framework underscore our belief that teachers and counselors in the new millennium must understand how to use information technologies and how to work effectively with the diversity of students found in public schools in order to prepare all students for success in a technological, multicultural, global society.

Teachers and counselors must know how to work collaboratively with colleagues and communicate with a variety of constituencies in order to be classroom and school leaders capable of effecting change and ensuring quality educational programs for all students. They must be reflective practitioners who continually evaluate and modify their practice, not only to meet the learning and developmental needs of students, but also to keep pace with a rapidly changing society and world.

The term EDUCATOR embodies the components of our Conceptual Framework and serves to remind us that we, the faculty, are first and foremost responsible for preparing the educators of the future. (See www.wcsu.edu)

The Education and Educational Psychology Department's Mission Statement and Objectives (Revised Fall 2003)

The mission of the Education and Educational Psychology (E&EP) Department is to prepare candidates for careers in teaching and counseling professions. We believe in initiating and maintaining professional relationships with the broader educational community and are committed to the continuous support and development of cooperative projects and services with area schools and community agencies. We embrace the broader mission of Western Connecticut State University to empower students to "...attain the highest standards of academic achievement...personal development, and ethical conduct". Candidates in our teacher and counselor preparation programs must achieve the following objectives:

1. demonstrate academic competence in their selected fields,
2. complete a general program of studies (in Education) in addition to a recommended content area major other than Education,
3. know the historical, social, economic, political, comparative and philosophical foundations of education or school counseling,
4. understand the variety of patterns of human growth and development
5. value and infuse cultural diversity,
6. demonstrate a proficiency in and working knowledge of the Connecticut Common Core of Teaching (with the embedded Connecticut Competency Instrument), Connecticut Common Core of Learning, Curriculum Frameworks K-12, the Connecticut Code of Professional Responsibility, and effective practices in the profession,
7. demonstrate a spirit of inquiry, the use of critical thinking skills, and the habits of the reflective practitioner, and,
8. demonstrate the ability to incorporate appropriately the use of technology in instructional practices.

What are the Elementary Education PDS Coordinator's Responsibilities?

The Elementary Education PDS Coordinator oversees the program. This person assumes a myriad of roles and responsibilities.

- Visit ED 206 and EPY 203 classes to discuss the requirements of the PDS program
 - Schedule and complete intake interviews with students applying for the PDS program.
 - Review candidate file for eligibility
 - Review eligibility of teachers
 - Work with Admissions Office to aggregate transcript GPA's from other institutions
 - Review essays
 - Contact references
 - Host PDS Orientation meetings for teachers, principals and candidates.
 - Work collaboratively with principals to make clinical placements for candidates
 - Work collaboratively with principals and teachers to address candidate needs
 - Encourage teachers within the school to be involved in Professional Development School activities
 - Assist candidates with planning lessons for Diversity at the University program
 - Share university initiatives with other PDS schools
 - Coordinate partnership work with partnership schools and candidates
 - Publicize PDS partnership activities within and beyond the school site
 - Collect observation, assessment forms and other written documentation for PDS candidates on site and submit those to the education secretary to be put in student's file.
 - Chair regularly scheduled PDS Faculty meetings
 - Represent the elementary education program at ERC and other meetings
 - Collaborate with other departments to ensure academic integrity of the program
 - Monitors candidates
 - Facilitates communication between candidates and school personnel

What is the Professional Semester?

The professional semester takes place during the semester immediately preceding student teaching. While participating in the professional semester you will be taking the following six courses and field experience:

1. ED 210 Foundations of Literacy I
2. ED 301 Foundations of Literacy II
3. EPY 405 Introduction to Special Education
4. ED 415 Elementary School Science: Content, Skills and Teaching Methods
5. ED 425 Elementary School Social Studies: Content, Skills and Teaching Methods
6. ED 430 Foundations of Literacy III
7. ED 320 Professional Development School Experience (field experience)

Schools collaborate with WCSU during each professional semester. These schools are referred to as Professional Development Schools (PDS). A 10-day PDS clinical experience designed to acquaint you with a classroom environment so that you can observe and participate in daily elementary school life prior to student teaching is also integrated into the professional semester. This is a time to learn first-hand about classroom management, assess student needs, improve your repertoire of teaching skills, learn about school culture, and experience the collegiality of working with exceptional teachers. For each of the 10 days, you will be present at your assigned school for the entire teaching day. This typically includes preparation prior to the time when students arrive at the beginning of the day.

Who makes the Professional Semester assignments?

WCSU has one PDS Coordinator who assigns students to specific schools, usually based on class cohorts. The principals at each school place the students with a mentor teacher according to teacher availability and their willingness to participate in the program. PDS sites will have varying numbers of student placements from one semester to another based on the number of student teachers assigned to a school and other activities taking place in the school at that time.

What do I do during the Professional Semester experience?

It is expected that you will participate at the assigned PDS site for the entire school day and typically for a planning period prior to the beginning of school. You will be involved at all levels of school activities, including those inside and out of the classroom (for example- lunch and recess duty). Naturally, you will want to speak with your mentor teacher to find out when and how you can best fit your ideas into his or her class schedule. There will be many opportunities for you to learn.

To help you with ideas for possible activities during this experience, the following examples are taken directly from course requirements for ED 210 Foundations Literacy I, ED 301 Foundations Literacy II, ED 320 Prof. Development Schools Experience, ED 415 Elementary School Science (K-6), ED 425 Elementary School Social Studies (K-6), ED 430 Foundations Literacy III, EPY 405 Introduction to Special Education. Needless to say, the integration of any of these activities into your professional semester experience will need to be agreed upon between you and your assigned teacher. As early in the semester as possible, discuss these ideas with your course professors and mentor teacher. Also be mindful of what you could do to display the behaviors indicated on the evaluation form.

How will I be evaluated?

Your mentor teacher will complete an evaluation form at the end of your PDS experience. Use the evaluation sheet as your guide and note when and how well you think you have accomplished specific competencies. Provide a copy of this form to your mentor teacher as soon as possible, so that he or she has a better understanding of how you are to be assessed. You should confer with your mentor teacher both during and at the end of the PDS experience to compare ideas and discuss your performance. When your mentor teacher has completed the evaluation form, please return it to Dr. Daria.

As a guide, your goal should be to have 8 out of 9 categories at the average to above average level. Regarding the second section, there should be 10 out of 15 checks indicating “yes” with no more than 1 blank per section. Once this form is completed, it will be placed in your student file in the Department of Education and Educational Psychology office.

What are the Professional Semester Courses?

ED 210: Foundations of Literacy I/Literacy Development

1. Analyze and articulate the nature and interconnectedness of the reading/language process as reflected by current research, national and state reading standards and assessment.
2. Evaluate the alignment of literacy objectives with experiential learning modules, differentiated instruction, and informal/formal assessment and reflection
3. Practice effective evidence-based planning, instructional design/assessment, and reflection for the National Reading Panel's three "Big Ideas", phonological awareness, decoding and fluency.
4. Analyze and explain the need for developing authentic learning environments that show respect for cultural, linguistic and ethnic diversity and motivate students to become lifelong learners who have the ability to self assess their own work.
5. Demonstrate a focus on the English Language Learners (ELL) students and develop action plans to best meet their literacy needs.

ED 301: Foundations of Literacy II/Development of Reading Comprehension with a Focus on Elements of Genre

1. Analyze and articulate the nature and interconnectedness of the reading/language process as reflected by current research, national and state reading standards and assessment.
2. Evaluate the alignment of literacy objectives with experiential learning modules, differentiated instruction, and informal/formal assessment and reflection
3. Practice effective evidence-based planning, instructional design/assessment, and reflection for the National Reading Panel's three "Big Ideas", phonological awareness, decoding and fluency.
4. Analyze and explain the need for developing authentic learning environments that show respect for cultural, linguistic and ethnic diversity and motivate students to become lifelong learners who have the ability to self assess their own work.
5. Demonstrate a focus on the English Language Learners (ELL) students and develop action plans to best meet their literacy needs.

ED 320: Fieldwork in PDS Schools K-6

1. Participate in a 10-day experience designed to acquaint you with a classroom environment so that you can observe and take an active role in daily elementary school life prior to student teaching.
2. Course material learned at the university level will be implemented in the areas of classroom management skills, student needs assessment, teaching skills, school culture, and through the collegiality of working with exceptional teachers.

ED 415: Teaching Elementary School Science K-6

1. Develop and teach a lesson plan for a topic in science.

2. Manage a center for materials students will use to perform an investigation.
3. Create a Learning Center.
4. Present a discrepant event.

ED 425: Teaching Elementary School Social Studies K-6

1. Prepare lesson plans that meet selected objectives and demonstrate effective teaching strategies.
2. Use technology to create a community based presentation that will demonstrate knowledge of social studies areas.
3. Create and implement a social studies bulletin board.
4. Develop classroom management strategies that are conducive to an interactive social studies classroom.
5. Maintain a reflective journal of the PDS experience.
6. Prepare a social studies portfolio that includes lesson plans, student work samples and a culminating activity. At least one lesson plan will be presented during the PDS experience.

ED 430: Foundations of Literacy III/ Assessment, Differentiated Learning and the English Language Learner and Special Needs Student

1. Analyze and articulate the nature and interconnectedness of the reading/language process as reflected by current research, national and state reading standards and assessment.
2. Evaluate the alignment of literacy objectives with experiential learning modules, differentiated instruction, and informal/formal assessment and reflection
3. Practice effective evidence-based planning, instructional design/assessment, and reflection for the National Reading Panel's three "Big Ideas", phonological awareness, decoding and fluency.
4. Analyze and explain the need for developing authentic learning environments that show respect for cultural, linguistic and ethnic diversity and motivate students to become lifelong learners who have the ability to self assess their own work.
5. Demonstrate a focus on the English Language Learners (ELL) students and develop action plans to best meet their literacy needs.

EPY 405: Introduction to Special Education K-6

1. Observe in a special education classroom.
2. Interview special education teachers and/or support personnel (i.e., psychologists, social workers, occupational and physical therapists), regarding their roles and functions.
3. Observe the modifications made on behalf of special learners in the classroom in which they are placed.
4. Assist the mentor teacher in providing appropriate modifications, accommodations, and specialized instruction for inclusion students with disabilities.

What is the Elementary Education Professional Development in Schools (PDS) Capstone Experience?

Description

Candidates participate in a full semester of pedagogically-based courses that have been extended to allow them to take part in a 10 day full-time PDS clinical experience in urban elementary public schools. The PDS Capstone Experience is designed to assess candidates' readiness to teach based on their clinical experience and several Association for Childhood Education International (ACEI) Standards areas. Candidates are evaluated on his/her ability to develop curriculum; design a series of instructional experiences targeting a specific developmental level with integrated content areas; demonstrate the alignment of curriculum, assessment and instruction; and reflect, through the use of multimedia, on the process and a lesson taught during their PDS experience.

Alignment with Standards

The Elementary PDS Capstone Experience aligns with the following Association for Childhood Education International (ACEI) Standards:

Curriculum	2.1 Reading, Writing, and Oral Language 2.2 Science 2.4 Social studies
Instruction	3.1 Integrating and applying knowledge for instruction 3.2 Adaptation to diverse students 3.3 Development of critical thinking and problem solving 3.4 Active engagement in learning 3.5 Communication to foster collaboration
Assessment	4.0 Assessment for instruction
Professionalism	5.1 Professional growth, reflection, and evaluation

Assessment Instrument

Professional Development in Schools (PDS) candidates are divided into groups and will identify a class demographic using the Mock Class Activity. Groups complete a final project based on one of the Science and Technology for Children (STC) units by Carolina Biological. The group discusses the development of the mini-unit online in Blackboard in Discussions, forming a continuous discussion thread. A target classroom for which the mini-unit is designed using the Mock Class Activity. K-1 classes will have 14 students and 2-5 will have 21 students.

The final project is based on the assigned STC unit and is focused on a specific grade level for which the kit is designed has two parts: A written component and a presentation component. The written component of the project consists of 4 sequential science lessons and 4 parallel or integrated lessons. All lessons will be developed using the WCSU lesson plan template using CT Frameworks (Science, Social Studies, and the Arts), Common Core State Standards – Literacy and Mathematics. The unit should integrate Literacy, Social Studies, (and optional Math).

Duration = 1 week

Lessons 1-3: Integrates Science and Literacy

Lesson 4: Integrates Science, Literacy and Social Studies (this is the lesson you will adapt to your PDS clinical class and implement)

The differentiated instruction section will accommodate all identified students from the Mock Class Activity, highlighting individuals or groups of students during the 4 day mini-unit: Special needs,

Gifted/talented, Academic strengths/ weaknesses, Behavioral issues, and/or English Language Learners.

In the presentation component, the unit is presented to the Elementary Education PDS Faculty Panel of Judges following the PDS experience. Each group designs and presents an overview of their unit to the panel (30 minutes).

Scoring Guide

Candidates written component are scored as a team using three rubrics: 1) Elementary PDS Capstone Project in Science Written Component; 2) Content Area Science –Social Studies Lesson Plan Grading Rubric (specific to the Social Studies lesson), and 3) Capstone Scoring Rubric: Literacy Across All Lessons (focused on instructional activities targeting ELLs and other language-based needs). The PowerPoint presentation, rubric #4, is based on presentation skills and content.

The final group presentation is made after the PDS experience. The presentation includes a component on how they adapted the Social Studies-Science lesson they taught in the PDS experience, from the written component (and kit) target grade to the grade level to which they were assigned in their PDS experience. A panel consisting of PDS faculty will use a rubric to judge the presentations and give immediate feedback to the candidates.

Who can I contact if I need help?

The PDS Coordinator will check on you during your 10-days on site. Her role is to coordinate your placement while making the program run smoothly between the university, you, and your assigned class. If you have any questions during your school experience, please contact the PDS Coordinator.

What do I do if I have to be absent on a scheduled PDS day?

Call your PDS site and leave a message for both the principal and your mentor teacher explaining why you are absent. You should also leave a message with the PDS Coordinator. Your make-up day for missing a class should be the following Monday after your absence. Be sure to contact Dr. Daria and your PDS mentor teacher to make certain that this is an acceptable make-up day. This arrangement is not automatic. Naturally, if you are not able to make-up your absence on the following Monday, please schedule your make-up day as soon as possible. Also be aware of the television and radio stations to tune into in the event of a weather-related school cancellation.

Do I need to receive permission for anything that I do?

Please consult with your mentor teacher or school principal about specific guidelines regarding photocopying, laminating and using school materials. There is specific school budgets designated for these items. School personnel have priority over such equipment and supplies.

There is no doubt that you will want to record and reflect upon the many activities you will have during your Professional Semester. If this documentation includes taking pictures or making a videotape, you should be aware that some parents or guardians have prohibited these activities regarding their children. This is a personal decision and often a safety precaution on the part of the parents or guardians. Be sure to find out if this request pertains to any of the children in your classroom.

Regarding this issue, policy in the Danbury Public School System requires that all parents be asked to sign a form if their children should NOT be included in any photographs or videos or any activity where the child's likeness is duplicated. Typically, each school sends this form home to parents at the beginning of the year. When unusual activities take place during the school year, such as the addition of Professional Semester students in the school, individual school administrators prefer that an additional form be sent to parents. Please check on this policy at your school site by speaking with the principal. The form on the following page can be sent to parents or your PDS school may also have this form on letterhead stationery.

August 7, 2010

Dear Education Candidates:

Effective July 1, 2010, local or regional boards of education must fingerprint individuals seeking placement in the district for the purpose of completing educator preparation requirements in nonpaid, noncertified positions (e.g., student teachers, interns, observations, etc.). (House Bill 6901). Any person in a nonpaid, noncertified position completing preparation requirements for the issuance of an educator certificate pursuant to chapter 166, who performs a service involving direct student contact to submit to state and national criminal history records checks within thirty days from the date such worker begins to perform such service. The criminal history records checks required by this subsection shall be conducted in accordance with section 29-17a.

This means you must be fingerprinted and have a background check before you are allowed to begin your involvement with any school system. Courses with clinical experiences are: ED 206, EPY 203, EPY 204, ED 341, ED 342 and all Reading courses for undergrads; ED 502, ED 530, & ED 571 for M.A.T. secondary candidates. Please call and make an appointment immediately, as they will be handling all public schools and universities in Western Connecticut.

Education Connection is the Regional Education Service Center which supports school districts in Western Connecticut. Fingerprints are done at the Danbury Office location and the Litchfield office location. Right now they fingerprint one day a week; every other week in Litchfield and visa versus in Danbury. Appointments are made by the Education Connection receptionists:

Barbara Westner at the Litchfield office
office
355 Goshen Road
Litchfield, CT 06759
(860)567-0863

Connie Phillippi at the Danbury
345 Main Street
Danbury, CT 06810
(203)791-1904

On the day of your scheduled appointment, all applicants are asked to arrive five minutes early and check in with the receptionist. Late arrivals are subject to rescheduling. The fee for fingerprinting is $43.25 payable to Education Connection via bank check or money order only. No personal checks are accepted.

All candidates will need to have a photo ID like driver's license, know their Social Security number, and the city and state they were born. After being fingerprinted candidates will leave with a confirmation letter signed and dated by the fingerprint technician confirming they were fingerprinted.

Candidates should also bring to their appointment a contact name and fax number of the school and district in which you are planning to serve your clinical experience in so Education Connection will know who to send the fingerprint results to.

The Education Connection Fingerprinting Services will process and forward your fingerprints and check/money order to the proper state and federal authorities for a criminal history check, and notify the district in which you were hired that you have been fingerprinted. Once received, Education Connection will inform the district of the results of your criminal history check.

PDS INTERVIEW TIPS (Adapted from Alibaba.com)

#1.A MUST!

Even though you are most likely a starving student, used to living in old sweats, you must invest in a stand-out outfit for your teacher interview. That's all there is to it. Even if you know you will be the best teacher in the universe, you must make a smart first impression, or you may not get the chance to prove your teaching mettle. So, beg or borrow to pull together an outfit that makes you look as great as you are.

#2.PROFESSIONAL

Male or female, wear a constructed jacket. Try to get one that is in an all year, midweight fabric, so you can wear it for any season. It doesn't have to be a matched suit, but it can be. Find something with a classic shape that is updated, not dowdy. Women should wear medium, closed toe heels. Men should wear leather dress shoes. People who dressed in good jackets and shoes looked the most "together."

#3.BE MODEST

Make sure your neckline is not showing cleavage, and your skirt is to the knee or below. Clothing should have a not too tight, but not too loose fit. You should be able to move and breathe in it.

#4.STAND OUT

Wear something professional, but don't be afraid of color. If you wear a distinctive piece of jewelry, or an attractive scarf or a favorite colored blouse or tie, you will be remembered. Guys, don't wear silly or cute ties to the interview. Be conservative, but with some personal flair. After speaking with 25+ people over the course of four days, those who wore something memorable were easier to keep in the mind's eye. Principals would sometimes discuss candidates and refer to them as "the one who wore the pink scarf", or "the one in that nice deep purple jacket." (Yes, really!)

#5.WEAR IT CONFIDENTLY

Practice wearing your interview outfit. Before you buy the shoes, walk around in the store, and make sure you feel comfortable in them. Practice walking with a relaxed, confident stride. Practice being seated gracefully.

#6.DEPARTMENT

Make sure your demeanor and conduct are very professional. Always show good manners and answer every question concisely and clearly. Use professional English. Avoid using slang and peppering your speech with "um" and "like." Show your interest and enthusiasm in your manner and body language. Keep good eye contact, and do not slouch or cross your arms.

Frequently Asked Questions

Is there anything else that I have to do to be admitted to the Professional Semester?

Yes, you must be interviewed by Education and Educational Psychology Department faculty.

Who sets up the interview?

We do. The Department secretary will notify you of the time and place of the interview

What will I be asked at the interview?

You will be asked questions about your education courses, your essay, your experience working with children, and your attitudes about teaching, and current educational issues.

What happens after the interview?

Once final grades have been posted, your professional semester file will be reviewed again to determine if requirements have been met. If you are a transfer student, all grades from previous institutions will be aggregated in with your WCSU grades to calculate one grade point average.

How will I know if I have been accepted to the Professional Semester?

You will receive a phone call and told that you have been accepted, as well as an acceptance letter from the Education & Educational Psychology Department chair.

How do I register for classes?

The Education & Educational Psychology Department has its own registration procedure for the professional semester. When you receive your phone call, you will be asked to come to the Education Office (WS 249) to get a letter giving you permission to register for the Professional Semester courses. You will take that letter to the Registrar's Office to register.
