1. Please note that completion of a Master's program in Addiction Studies is only one of the requirements for obtaining certification as a Licensed Drug and Alcohol Counselor (LADC) in Connecticut. Each student is responsible for understanding the Connecticut State Department of Public Health licensure requirements, as listed on their website (<https://portal.ct.gov/DPH/Practitioner-Licensing--Investigations/Alcohol-Drug-Counselor/Alcohol-and-Drug-Counselor-Licensure-Requirements>). Application for certification cannot occur until after supervision hours are earned and all other requirements have been met. Licensure requirements for drug and alcohol counselors in other states may vary, see applicable state regulations.

2. Financial aid may be available.
