Adjunct Teaching Positions

Western Connecticut State University is pleased to announce applications are being accepted by the Department of Social Sciences for part-time adjunct in-person (not online) teaching positions in Sociology.

Qualifications: A PhD in Sociology is preferred, but applicants with a Master’s Degree in Sociology or who are ABD in Sociology will be considered. Those without graduate-level training in Sociology will not be considered, prior teaching experience at the university level, and the ability to teach both introductory and one or more upper division level sociology courses. Excellent written and oral communication skills are required.

WCSU is committed to enhancing our diverse university community by actively encouraging people with disabilities, minorities, veterans, and women to apply. We take pride in our pluralistic community and continue to seek excellence through diversity and inclusion.

Salary & Benefits: Minimum starting salary will be $1,610 per load credit (or a minimum of $4,830 for a single 3 credit course). Additional information on benefits can be found at www.wcsu.edu/hr/benefits/. Part-time faculty at WCSU are represented by the American Association of University Professors.

Application Materials: Interested candidates should e-mail a cover letter, curriculum vitae/resume and one or more sample syllabi to Dr. Carina Bandhauer at bandhauerc@wcsu.edu. In the subject line, please reference “Sociology Adjunct.”
