Western Connecticut State University is pleased to announce applications are being accepted by the Department of Philosophy & Humanistic Studies for part-time adjunct teaching positions in interdisciplinary studies. Additional information about the department may be found on: www.wcsu.edu/philosophy/.

Qualifications: A PhD in Interdisciplinary Studies is preferred, but applicants with a Master's Degree in Interdisciplinary Studies or who are ABD will be considered as well as those with graduate degrees in other fields who can demonstrate a background in teaching and/or research in interdisciplinary studies. Prior teaching experience at the university level and the ability to teach introductory level courses in interdisciplinary studies. Excellent written and oral communication skills are required.

WCSU is committed to enhancing our diverse university community, by actively encouraging people with disabilities, minorities, veterans, and other groups to apply. WCSU takes pride in its pluralistic community and seeks excellence through diversity and inclusion.

Salary & Benefits: Minimum starting salary for Spring 2021 will be $1,698 per load credit (or a minimum of $5,094 for a single three (3) credit course). Additional information on benefits can be found at www.wcsu.edu/hr/benefits/. Part-time faculty at WCSU are represented by the American Association of University Professors.

Application Materials: Interested applicants should e-mail a cover letter, curriculum vitae/resume and one or more sample syllabi to Dr. Ciğdem Üsekes at usekesc@wcsu.edu. In the subject line, please reference “Humanistic Studies Adjunct.”