

Per the below screenshot from Fidelity, CHET deductions will discontinue following the check date of 1/29. Core-CT will automatically end-date the CHET deductions at the conclusion of the 1/29 payroll cycle. Employees who wish to continue making contributions to the CHET program may do so via their bank account. More information will be sent to employees from Fidelity regarding how to setup the automatic bank account contributions ASAP.

Payroll deductions are ending

As Fidelity Investments becomes the new program manager for the Connecticut Higher Education Trust (CHET) 529 College Savings Program in February, we want to make sure you know that payroll deductions will end as of January 29, 2021.

While there is no action required to stop payroll deductions, you can activate your account with Fidelity and establish automatic contributions through your bank starting February 8.

The Connecticut Higher Education Trust (CHET) 529 College Savings Plan - Direct Plan is offered by the Treasurer of the state of Connecticut and managed by Fidelity Investments. If you or the designated beneficiary is not a Connecticut resident, you may want to consider, before investing, whether your state or the beneficiary's home state offers its residents a plan with alternate state tax advantages or other state benefits such as financial aid, scholarship funds and protection from creditors.

Units of the portfolios are municipal securities and may be subject to market volatility and fluctuation.

Please carefully consider the plan's investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses before investing. For this and other information on any 529 college savings plan managed by Fidelity, contact Fidelity for a free Fact Kit, or view one online. Read it carefully before you invest or send money.
