Western Connecticut State University
Macricostas School of Arts & Sciences
Department of Social Sciences
Political Science Adjunct Teaching Positions

Western Connecticut State University is pleased to announce applications are being accepted by the Department of Social Sciences for part-time Political Science adjunct teaching position.

Qualifications: Candidates must possess a master’s degree in political science or a related field. Must possess expertise and the ability to teach PS 102 American Government and/or PS 104 World Governments. Prior teaching experience at the collegiate level is preferred. Excellent written and oral communication skills are required.

Beginning in the Fall 2021 semester, WCSU is planning on holding all classes on campus in-person.

WCSU is committed to enhancing our diverse university community by actively encouraging people with disabilities, minorities, veterans, and women to apply. We take pride in our pluralistic community and continue to seek excellence through diversity and inclusion.

Salary & Benefits: Minimum starting salary will be $1,698 per load credit (or a minimum of $5,094 for a single 3 credit course). Additional information on benefits can be found at www.wcsu.edu/hr/benefits/. Part-time faculty at WCSU are represented by the American Association of University Professors.

Application Materials: Interested candidates should e-mail a cover letter and curriculum vitae/resume to Dr. H. Howell Williams, assistant professor of political science at williamsh@wcsu.edu. In the subject line, please reference “Adjunct Political Science”.

Application Deadline: Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the positions are filled.

Western is an Affirmative Action Equal Opportunity Educator/Employer