RE: Observance of Holidays – 2022

In accordance with C.G.S. §1-4, the Holidays to be observed by the State of Connecticut in 2022 are as follows:

HOLIDAY	OBSERVED ON
New Year's Day 2022	Friday, December 31, 2021
Martin Luther King, Jr. Day	Monday, January 17, 2022
Lincoln's Birthday	Friday, February 11, 2022
Washington's Birthday	Monday, February 21, 2022
Good Friday	Friday, April 15, 2022
Memorial Day	Monday, May 30, 2022
Independence Day	Monday, July 4, 2022
Labor Day	Monday, September 5, 2022
Columbus Day	Monday, October 10, 2022
Veterans' Day	Friday, November 11, 2022
Thanksgiving Day	Thursday, November 24, 2022
Christmas Day	Monday, December 26, 2022

The first Holiday (New Year's) for 2023 falls on Monday, January 2, 2023.

Individual collective bargaining agreements are to be consulted to determine provisions regarding holiday compensation and/or compensatory time off for work performed on a holiday. Employees not covered by collective bargaining units shall receive holiday benefits in accordance with C.G.S. §5-254 which states: (a) Each full-time permanent employee in the state service shall be granted time off with pay for any legal holiday. A general worker employed in a position by the Department of Developmental Services as a self-advocate, not to exceed eleven such general workers, shall be granted time off with pay for any legal holiday that falls on a day that the general worker is regularly scheduled to work and provided the pay shall be for the number of hours the general worker would have been scheduled to work. If a legal holiday falls on a Saturday, employees shall be granted equivalent time off on the Friday immediately preceding such Saturday or given another day off in lieu thereof. The Commissioner of Administrative Services may issue regulations governing the granting of holiday time to other employees in the state service, which regulations shall be approved by the Secretary of the Office of Policy and Management. (b) Any employee in the state service compensated on an hourly or per diem basis shall be entitled to time off with pay commensurate with any time granted by order of the Governor to salaried employees with pay. (c) No state employee whose duties are not directly concerned with the business of the General Assembly shall be required to work any legal holiday solely by reason of the convening of the General Assembly on such day.

For future planning purposes and to address a number of inquiries received, the following facts are provided for convenience:

- Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday is observed on the first Monday occurring on or after January fifteenth each year
- Lincoln's Birthday is observed on February 12th of each year (unless this date falls on the weekend in which case it will be observed in accordance with the Statute referenced)
- Washington's Birthday is observed on the third Monday in February each year
- Memorial Day is observed on the last Monday in May each year
- Labor Day is observed on the first Monday in September each year
- Columbus Day is observed on the second Monday of October each year
- Veteran's Day is observed on November 11th (unless this date falls on the weekend in which case it will be observed in accordance with the Statute referenced)
- Holidays are to be paid only when an employee is on the payroll at any time during the workday immediately preceding the holiday or during the workday immediately following the holiday. Exceptions include when the employee's absence is due to approved unpaid leave (1.) taken under the Voluntary Schedule Reduction Program or (2.) due to a mandatory furlough day. In these cases, the holiday is to be paid in accordance with Personnel Regulations Section 5-248c-3(e).
- If a holiday "occurs upon a Sunday, the Monday next following such day shall be a legal holiday and whenever any of such days occurs upon a Saturday, the Friday immediately preceding such day shall be a legal holiday" in accordance with C.G.S. §1-4.

Human Resources Professionals should direct questions concerning this information to their HR Consultant. Employees should contact their Human Resources Office directly.
