Source Name	Description	URL
Core Documents of U.S. Democracy	To provide American citizens direct online access to the basic Federal Government documents that define our democratic society, a core group of current and historical Government publications is being made available for free, permanent, public access. In addition to full ASCII text, some documents, such as the Constitution and Declaration of Independence, are available as scanned images of the original manuscripts. Document texts range from the Articles of Confederation to the current United States Government Manual, Statistical Abstracts and Code of Federal Regulations.	https://www.wtamu.edu/library/govt/core docs.shtml
Data.gov	The home of the U.S. Government's open data Here you will find data, tools, and resources to conduct research, develop web and mobile applications, design data visualizations, and more.	https://data.gov/
DHS news	Important announcement and news shared by the DHS	https://www.dhs.gov/all-news-updates
Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ)	This service covers free, full text, quality controlled scientific and scholarly journals. We aim to cover all subjects and languages. Covers nearly 150,000 articles in 834 searchable journals.	https://www.doaj.org/
DoJ Office of Justice Programs	Access to more than 3,500 full text publications and more than 190,000 abstracts, or summaries, of publications on this site and from NCJRS partner agency websites.	https://www.ojp.gov/
Earth Data	NASA's Earth Science Data Systems (ESDS) program oversees the life cycle of NASA's Earth science data—from acquisition through processing and distribution. The primary goal of ESDS is to maximize the scientific return from NASA's missions and experiments for research and applied scientists, decision makers, and society at large.	https://earthdata.nasa.gov/

Global Health Observatory data repository	Welcome to the Global Health Observatory, WHO's gateway to health-related statistics for more than 1000 indicators for its 194 Member States. Data are organized to monitor progress towards the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), including health status indicators to monitor progress towards for the overall health goal, indicators to track equity in health indicators, and the indicators for the specific health and health-related targets of the SDGs.	https://apps.who.int/gho/data/node.home
Global Terrorism Database	The GTD is an open-source database including information on terrorist events around the world from 1970 through 2019 (with annual updates planned for the future). Unlike many other event databases, the GTD includes systematic data on domestic as well as international terrorist incidents that have occurred during this time period and now includes more than 200,000 cases.	https://www.start.umd.edu/gtd/
Gun Violence Archive	The Gun Violence Archive is an online archive of gun violence incidents collected from over 7,500 law enforcement, media, government and commercial sources daily in an effort to provide near-real time data about the results of gun violence. GVA is an independent data collection and research group with no affiliation with any advocacy organization.	https://www.gunviolencearchive.org/
Library of Congress Collections	This Library of Congress project provides access to a large number of LoC collections, searchable and browsable by subject and title, including a large quantity of digitized primary source material.	https://www.loc.gov/collections/
Magazine Portal (MagPortal)	Find individual articles from many free magazines by browsing the categories or using the search engine.	http://www.magportal.com/
National Forest Service Library	The National Forest Service Library provides access to electronic journals and bibliographic databases, current literature alerting, reference, and interlibrary loan services to support the needs of Forest Service employees. Forest Service employees can find library services and assistance through the intranet site.	https://www.fs.fed.us/library/

National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS)	Implemented to improve the overall quality of crime data collected by law enforcement, NIBRS captures details on each single crime incident—as well as on separate offenses within the same incident—including information on victims, known offenders, relationships between victims and offenders, arrestees, and property involved in crimes.	https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/ucr/nibrs
Natural Disaster Database	EM-DAT provides an objective basis for vulnerability assessment and rational decision-making in disaster situations. For example, it helps policymakers identify the disaster types that are most common in a given country and that have had significant historical impacts on human populations.	https://www.emdat.be/
Our World in Data	"research and data to make progress against the world's largest problems"	https://ourworldindata.org/
RAND Corporation	The Homeland Security Research Division (HSRD) is the research unit within RAND that houses the Homeland Security Operational Analysis Center, an FFRDC operated by RAND under contract with the Department of Homeland Security. HSRD also serves as the platform by which RAND communicates relevant research from across its units with the broader homeland security enterprise.	https://www.rand.org/hsrd.html
Science.Gov	Science.gov searches over 60 databases and over 2,200 scientific websites to provide users with access to more than 200 million pages of authoritative federal science information including research and development results.	https://www.science.gov/
The Violence Project	Explore the shooters, their backgrounds, guns and motivations.	https://www.theviolenceproject.org/mass-shooter-database/
United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime	The SHERLOC (Sharing Electronic Resources and Laws on Crime) knowledge management portal is developed and maintained by the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) to facilitate the dissemination of information regarding the implementation of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime	https://sherloc.unodc.org/cld/en/st/home.html

	and its three Protocols, as well as the international legal framework against terrorism. SHERLOC is free and accessible to the public without the need for registration.
US Government Info	From the U.S. Government Printing Office: provides free electronic access to a wealth of important information products produced by the Federal Government. The information provided on this site is the official, published version.	https://www.govinfo.gov/