

Cameron Rosen

Analyst, U.S. Department of Justice, Criminal Division Child Exploitation & Obscenity

ABOUT

Cameron (Cam) Rosen joined the U.S. Department of Justice's Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section (CEOS) in November 2024. As an analyst, she contributes to CEOS's prevention programming, policy development, and investigative efforts. She played a key role in launching CEOS's prevention portfolio, with a focus on school-based outreach, creation of practical safety resources, and public education on emerging online threats to children. Before joining the Department of Justice, Cam held various positions from Intern to Policy Coordinator at the Los Angeles Police Department, the Air Force Office of Special Investigations, and the International Association of Chiefs of Police. Cam earned her Bachelor of Arts (Honors) in Criminology and Sociology from the University of Stirling in 2021 and went on to complete her Master of Public Policy, with a concentration in criminal justice, at American University in Washington, D.C., in 2023.
