

Field Service Engineer: LC-MS

Join Our Team !

Seeking a Field Service Engineer for Massachusetts and New England territory,

About Us:

The premiere lifecycle laboratory engineering services and instrumentation company in New England; twenty years of solid growth. Company is known for its unwavering commitment to both its clients and engineering staff. Position open due to growth. Immediate opening, EOE

About You:

Candidate Qualifications

Previous field service engineering service of complex analytical instrumentation specifically LC-MS. (Minimum 2 years). Establish and maintain strong relations with customers, as well as manage customer expectations. Open to working outside of regular business hours and understand flexibility required.

Primary Responsibilities:

Territory: Massachusetts and New England

Concentration: LC-MS with proven experience trouble shooting, installation, performance maintenance, repairs

Commitment: Unwavering commitment to client base so as to delight client

Communications skills: Strong oral and written communications

Follow service manuals, protocol, policies
Help us build a world class services organization
Participate in lab relocations

Compensation:

Competitive compensation package including salary, comprehensive benefits package including health and dental insurance, matching 401K contribution, holidays, paid vacationland more. Vehicle reimbursement for all travel-related expenses and paid mileage.

Contact:

Richard Halpern
FSE Match
rhalpern@fsematch.com
508.560.7439

