Awards

Jesse Lewis Compassion Award

This award is presented to a student whose compassion (actively helping others to solve or overcome their problems or suffering) knows no bounds. This award is in memory of Jesse Lewis, the six-year-old Sandy Hook student who saved the lives of nine other first-graders on December 14, 2012.

Awarded by: Center for Compassion, Creativity & Innovation

Unsung Leader Award

This award is given to five students who have contributed to the campus in a significant manner but whose efforts are not otherwise recognized.

Awarded by: The SGA President

Leadership, Compassion & Creativity Certificate (LCCC)

The Leadership, Compassion & Creativity Certificate (LCCC) mission is to expand opportunities and support student learning, research and intellectual discourse. By exploring the values of leadership, compassion and creativity across all Student Affairs disciplines and with people of all communities, our LCCC students learn how they as students can practice effective leadership in their current roles, civic life and future careers.

Awarded by: The LCCC program director

Hancock Student Leadership Program (awarded separately)

The Hancock Student Leadership Program was instituted in 2008 and is sponsored by Ellen M. and W. Jason Hancock. The program promotes, fosters and acknowledges a diverse group of student leaders and their ability to inspire, motivate and influence others on campus and beyond.

Awarded by: The program co-chairs on behalf of the Hancock Foundation

Leah Ciccone

Zoë Gluck

Devin Kalal

Allison Noteware

Rachel Rossier

SLRB Committee Student Organization of the Year Awards

Each award is presented to a student organization that has shown outstanding commitment to its organizational goals and program planning, has made an impact on the campus and surrounding community, and has demonstrated the leadership development of its group members.
