Jesse Lewis Compassion Award

This award is presented to a student whose compassion (actively helping others to solve or overcome their problems or suffering) knows no bounds. This award is in memory of Jesse Lewis, the six-year-old Sandy Hook student who saved the lives of nine other first-graders on December 14, 2012.

Awarded by: Center for Compassion, Creativity & Innovation

Leadership, Compassion & Creativity Certificate (LCCC)

The Leadership, Compassion & Creativity Certificate (LCCC) mission is to expand opportunities and support student learning, research and intellectual discourse. By exploring the values of leadership, compassion and creativity across all Student Affairs disciplines and with people of all communities, our LCCC students learn how they as students can practice effective leadership in their current roles, civic life and future careers.

Awarded by: The LCCC program director

SLRB Committee Student Organization of the Year Awards

Each award is presented to a student organization that has shown outstanding commitment to its organizational goals and program planning, has made an impact on the campus and surrounding community, and has demonstrated the leadership development of its group members.
