The Quantum Leap Institute

Benjamin (Sergipe, Brazil - October 26th, 1970) is a spiritual leader, medium, TV host, writer, public speaker and founding president of the Quantum Leap Institute, a NGO detached from any formal religious movement, established in 1988, with the main purpose of promoting, through means of mass communication, the ideals of happiness, peace and universal fraternity, under the main emblem: “Spirituality with our without religion.” He has more than 5 million followers on Facebook, considering the sum of his pages in Portuguese and English. In partnership with the American branch of the QLI in Bethel, CT, he holds international events in Manhattan, New York every year, which consist of a series of lectures focused on the defense and development of essential spiritual principles for the consolidation of peace in the world, solidarity amongst people, and the integral evolution of humanity. (Between 2012 and 2016, these annual conferences happened in the headquarters of the United Nations; in 2017, they happened in the One World Trade Center – Freedom Tower). His work alongside with his Spiritual Guide, Eugênia-Aspásia achieved the Special Consultative Status within UN’s Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), allowing the Quantum Leap to represent the Great Spirituality points of view in various matters, giving both written and spoken statements on meetings and events. The Quantum Leap Institute has not only representatives in Manhattan but also in Geneva, England, and Brazil.
