

Banned Books Week

2008 Schedule of Events

Monday, September 29

WCSU Faculty Author Reading

Monday, 9/29, 11 a.m.-Noon

Warner Hall Lyceum

Monday, September 29

“Banned and Beloved: How Huck Finn has Fueled One of the Most Enduring Battles with Censorship”

Andrew Schneider, Executive Director of the American Civil Liberties Union of Connecticut

Monday, 9/29, 3 p.m. - 4 p.m.

Warner Hall Lyceum

Tuesday, September 30

Banned Books Readathon

WCSU Students, Faculty, Staff, and Community Members

Outside of the Student Center (Warner Hall lobby in the event of inclement weather)

Tuesday, 9/30, 10 a.m.–2 p.m.

Wednesday, October 1

“Is There Any Such Thing as a Bad Word? Who Says, and Who Says Them?”

D.L. Stephenson,
Department of Communication

Wednesday, 10/1, 4 -5 p.m.

Warner Hall Lyceum

Wednesday, October 1

Banned Books Readathon

WCSU Students, Faculty, Staff, and Community Members

Outside of the Student Center (Warner Hall lobby in the event of inclement weather)

Wednesday, 10/1, 1 p.m.–2 p.m.

Thursday, October 2

Poetry Slam – Open Mike

Midtown Coffeehouse, Alumni Hall

Thursday, 10/2, 8:00-9:00 p.m.

Friday, October 3

“Should Professors be Allowed to Assign Books That Deny the Holocaust?”

Roger Sherman Debate Society

Friday, 10/3, Noon-1 p.m.

Warner Hall Lyceum

For more information,
call (203) 837-8869